Change in Time

Our personal habits will be radically changed next Sunday morning. The act of Congress signed by the President on March 20, 1918, provides that on the last Sunday in March of every year the hands of the clock be put forward one hour at 2 a.m. But you may do this little thing before you retire Saturday night. On the last Sunday in October the hands go back.

THRIFT MEANS

Spending wisely to satisfy important needs of the present; and saving the rest of one's income to meet important needs of the future, lest spending for trifles today deplete one's resources so that he cannot meet important needs and opportunities tomorrow. Thrift, like success, requires two things, planning and will power to carry out the plans. In short, thrift means success.

Thrift Stamps will help you to plan and will back up your will power.

REGENERATION

Before I went to war I lived my life

In luxury and softness, seeing naught

Of the despair and sad, unceasing strife

Of thousands with whose lives my ease was bought.

Before I went to war I took no thought

But heedless, careless, daffied on with sin;

Saw not the price at which a soul is bought.

Nor knew the souls men buy as mine own kin.

I went to war—tore out my dying roots

From the stagnant soil and flesh was bedded in.

I'd thought to find my comrades uncouth brutes—

Instead, found men, and learned that sin is sin!

And Liberty!—I learned to know thy call

Is God's own call to help the world in pain.

So, God, I pray thee not to pardon all.

But do not let me close my eyes again!

—Lieutenant John H. Minns.

WEEKLY GREETING
Carmel stood out from the shore of the sea, which was another name for the West.—From "The Life of the Master" by John Watson.

It Is Important
Carmel is big enough and old enough and important enough to have some sort of a business organization. It is time we had a board of trade, merchants' club, chamber of commerce—an organization to take up various business problems, such as credits, advertising, transportation charges, improvements, legislation, etc.

These matters and others are infinitely better handled and solved by collective action than individually.

Every business firm, hotel proprietor and professional person should be interested in this proposed organization. A meeting should be called at once—before the summer season begins.

Let's get together.

The Best Yet

One of the most novel and enjoyable social affairs—a Gypsy supper dance—ever given in Carmel took place at the Hopper home last Saturday evening.

As our observing fellow-townsmen, Tal Josselyn, puts it, "Yer got to hand it to the Hoppers when it comes to givin' swell doin's."

With straw spread about, blankets on the walls and floor, canvas overhead, the whole illuminated by subdued colored lanterns, the spacious living room was a veritable Gypsy camp.

Everyone present entered heartily into the spirit of the affair, being attired in bright and nondescript costumes. Several blood-thirsty looking villains played cards in secluded corner, growling the while. In another corner dark maids and gallant youths sang and flirted. And about the camp were groups of gay Gypsies in animated conversation.

With such music as Ben Leidig's orchestra rendered it is no wonder that the hour was late when the dancers wended their way home ward.

To go back to the beginning. Never did Gypsies fare as well in eats as did those who were fortunate enough to be present. It would be cruel to those who were not there to detail the goodies. But there was plenty.

Those present were:
Mrs. F. W. Clappett, Mrs. E. M. Tucker, Mrs. F. C. Pudan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heron, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hilliard, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Riper, Mr. Mrs. W. L. Overstreet, Mr. and E. R. Bechdolt, Mr. and Mrs. James Hopper.

Alice Hilby, Jeannette Hoagland, Eliot, Marion and Charis Boke, Bonnie Hale, Helen and Hilda Hilliard, Phyllis Overstreet, Grace Wickham, Elizabeth and Maryann Hopper, Shelley Harthorn, Cornelia Clappett, Eleanor Harrington.

Eugene Gillett, Franklin Murphy, Ben Leidig, Roddy Maddock, Alfred Parnell, Cecil May, Reginald Clappett, Shepard Tucker, Donald Hae, Ernest Hemmings, Hamilton Wolf, Talbert Josselyn, Lawrence Harthorn, Richard Boke, James Wilson, James Hopper Jr.

Inquire at Pine Cone office.

Anyone having $500 to invest could not do better than to acquire forty acres of land, capable of producing when plowed and cleared of manzanita roots, good crops. Such a piece of land is available a mile and a half east of Highlands Inn. On the land, which has been surveyed, is a two-room house, and near by a year-round spring of good water. There is a fair road from the highway to the property. The owner has too much land. Clear title. Inquire at Pine Cone office. advt

A Friendly Tribute

Dr. H. Heath Bawden has left Carmel. To those who knew him intimately the loss will be keen, but beyond this the community will be the greater loser. The influence of a larger mind and keener insight is a subtle thing, as what we often call or miscall deeper truths, something familiar and taken for granted, but overlooked until deprivation forces mental readjustment.

If the doctor had been a banker or a merchant he must have been better known and valued here, but his worth would be immeasurably less.

May he and Mrs. Bawden prosper in their new field of endeavor at San Ysidro, San Diego County.

The Auction

It was an event. All Carmel and her little brother were on hand at the auction sale of the Von Ende effects last Friday afternoon at the Pine Cone office. Several horrid men from Monterey were also there.

With Constable Mika de Noon as auctioneer and Attorney Silas W. Mack as the power behind the throne, conducting the sale, there came also into our midst telephone manager F. A. Edwards and furniture dealer Louis Rudolph looking for bargains. These two helped to boost prices, too. As one old timer remarked, "Every time someone thinks she's landed something, Rudolph drops a monkey wrench in the machinery."

But it was a successful sale, nevertheless. About $180 was realized to cover claims aggregating $217, plus costs.

Prior to the sale of the household goods, the Weber piano was sold to Louis Rudolph for $100, which amount will more than satisfy the Schweninger claim.

The filing cabinet was not sold.
